

A.C.E. Awards: Acknowledging Commitment & Excellence

Award Winners

In 2013 we launched our quarterly peer recognition award, A.C.E. - Acknowledging Commitment and Excellence. The A.C.E. awards is SPH's way of acknowledging an individual staff member who has made an extraordinary effort in a particular task or aspect of their position, accomplished something special, and/or exemplifies a collaborative commitment to their work and the School's mission.

The committee members meet on a quarterly basis to review A.C.E. nominations and select up to five individuals they feel exemplify the meaning of the A.C.E. Award. Listed below are the most recent A.C.E. recipients:

Christopher Riley, Video Production Specialist, Department of Information Technology

Chris was nominated as a result of his commitment to the school and the work that he puts into the many videos that he creates and are used school wide. He always strives to improve videos from year to year and to collaborate with faculty staff and students in order to help them reach their goals when creating videos. It was stated that he "truly is a treasure at HSPH".

Elaine Kiley, Associate Director of Sponsored Programs Administration, Sponsored Programs Administration

Elaine was nominated as a result of being a long standing and beloved employee of the SPA office. She is considered the resident expert on "everything" research administration. She exemplifies collaborative commitment daily through her thoughtful feedback and comments on research administration policy and process, willingness to help and train others including SPA and department staff, positive demeanor in the office, and open door policy. She goes above and beyond and is always a team player.

Leila Rosario, Financial Operations Manager, Department of Health Policy and Management

Leila Rosario was nominated as a result of being the "unsung hero" in HPM. It was stated that she plays a critical role in the department working behind the scenes to ensure things run smoothly and are accomplished in a timely manner. She is the go-to person for many things in the department and always helps faculty and staff resolve issues with a smile on her face. She consistently goes above and beyond for the department.
