

A.C.E. Awards: Acknowledging Commitment & Excellence

Award Winners

In 2013 we launched our quarterly peer recognition award, A.C.E. - Acknowledging Commitment and Excellence. The A.C.E. awards is HSPH's way of acknowledging an individual staff member who has made an extraordinary effort in a particular task or aspect of their position, accomplished something special, and/or exemplifies a collaborative commitment to their work and the School's mission.

The committee members meet on a quarterly basis to review A.C.E. nominations and select up to five individuals they feel exemplify the meaning of the A.C.E. Award. Listed below are the most recent A.C.E. recipients:

Michelle Giuliana, Assistant Director of Strategic Projects, Dean's Office

Michelle was nominated as a result of her exceptional leadership in the Dean's Office. It was noted that Michelle's attention to detail and grace under pressure are unmatched. She is the consummate professional and collaborates effectively. Her efforts across the board contributed invaluable to the success of the Centennial Year.

Kathryn Galvin, Director of Administration, Dean's Office

Kathryn was nominated as a result of her being an indispensable and valued member of the Dean's Office. Her ability to juggle multiple competing priorities with ease and professionalism is unmatched. In her position, Kathryn must work collaboratively and efficiently with people at all levels, both internally and externally. She has developed exceptional relationships across the School, the University, and in the wider world, always acting with the utmost diplomacy and professionalism.

Michelle Giuliana (left)
& Kathryn Galvin
(center)