

A.C.E. Awards: Acknowledging Commitment & Excellence

Award Winners

Meryl Colten

This October we launched our quarterly peer recognition award, A.C.E. - Acknowledging Commitment and Excellence. The A.C.E. awards is HSPH's way of acknowledging an individual staff member who has made an extraordinary effort in a particular task or aspect of their position, accomplished something special, and/or exemplifies a collaborative commitment to their work and the School's mission.

The A.C.E. committee was made up by the following HSPH staff members: Michelle Giuliana (Dean's Office), Arisleyda Veras (DPTLD), Elissa Brennan (HR), Susan Gilbert (GHP), Jessica Clark (CBAR), Jackie Craigue (Epi).

The committee members worked together to review the A.C.E. nominations and selected three individuals that they felt exemplified the meaning of the A.C.E. Award.

Meryl Colten, Research Assistant, in the Department of Environmental Health (EER)

Meryl was nominated as a result of her commitment to her work and building relationships with not only her peers but also the research participants that she works with.

Loretta Alamo, Assistant Director of Administration, Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences

Loretta was nominated as a result of her commitment to helping others in her department and always going out of her way to provide the highest level of service to staff members.

Erin Provensal, Instructional Technologist, Department of IT

Erin was nominated for her work in the area of instructional technology at HSPH, and her commitment to doing an outstanding job on several key initiatives at the school.

Loretta Alamo

Erin Provensal