An independent contractor questionnaire (ICQ) must be completed prior to engaging the individual to start work and regardless of where the work is being completed (both inside and outside Massachusetts). For work outside of the U.S., Harvard must also follow the rules and regulations based on the country in which the work is taking place. These provisions may be different than MA law and are occasionally more stringent (Europe) or entail tax withholdings on payments to contractors. See the Independent Contractor Policy.

Guidance on Classifications

MYTH: Individuals can be paid as employees, independent contractors or vendors/suppliers.

FACT: There are only two options for paying individuals – as employees or as independent contractors. An “independent contractor” is the same thing as a “vendor” or “supplier.”

Employee

- Paid via PeopleSoft or an approved out-of-state or out-of-country payroll

- Individual
- Generally being paid compensation or salary and wages in exchange for past, present or future services that are primarily for Harvard’s benefit.
- Requires a Form I-9
- Receives a W-2
- May have income taxes withheld

Vendor

(May also be called a Supplier or Contractor and may be paid for the purchase of goods and/or services.)

- Paid via Accounts Payable (HCOM/B2P)

- Can be operating as a single individual, or a multiple employee business
- Can be unincorporated, an individual person, a company, LLC, business, partnership, nonprofit, government agency, trust/estate, etc.
- Individuals or single-person companies (regardless of company type) must comply with the Independent Contractor Policy
- Foreign vendors (individual or entity) may have taxes withheld depending upon the payment type and tax status
- May receive a 1042S or 1099 based on vendor and payment type and tax status
