Congratulations graduates!
At Commencement on May 26, 2016, Acting Dean David Hunter urged the 539 members of the Harvard Chan Class of 2016 to lead lives of "service and integrity."

Read the transcripts from Acting Dean David Hunter, Clinton Foundation President Donna Shalala, student speaker Yu Na, and Alumni Council President-elect M. Rashad Massoud.

Commencement 2016 in pictures
View a slideshow and photo galleries highlighting all the Commencement events on May 25 and 26.

‘Superbug’ highlights dangers of antibiotic resistance
Sarah Fortune discusses the threat of drug resistance following news that a "superbug" resistant to the antibiotic of last resort was found in a patient in Pennsylvania.

In the news
Lawsuits raise questions about
Around the School

Rebuilding health care in Nepal
Following last year's devastating earthquake, Ramu Kharel, MPH '16, is committed to improving health care in his native country.

Global economic downturn linked with at least 260,000 excess cancer deaths
Researchers analyzed the link between unemployment, public health care spending, and cancer mortality using data from roughly 2 billion people.

The science behind how we taste and smell food
Guy Crosby explains how our sense of taste and smell is clearly linked to overall health, and why some of us may be "super-tasters."

Heartful meditation
On Mondays during the summer you can learn how to practice "heartful meditation." The Monday meditation sessions begin June 6 and take place at two locations on the Longwood Campus.

Share faculty news with Harvard Public Health magazine
Have you recently won an award or had a new book published? Harvard Public Health magazine would like to feature your accomplishments in an upcoming edition. Share your news by emailing Amy Roeder.

Download the Harvard Chan School's mobile app
Install the Harvard Chan School's mobile app to stay up to date on the latest news, video, and podcasts from the School. Also, be sure to check out the "Links" section for useful campus resources.