Centennial time capsule ‘buried’ in FXB
The HSPH year-long Centennial celebration continued with the installation of a time capsule in the lobby wall of the FXB building, where it will remain unopened until 2063. Deans Julio Frenk and David Hunter lifted the box into place at a celebration with faculty, students, and staff.

Growing number of chemicals linked with brain disorders in children
Toxic chemicals may be triggering the recent increases in neurodevelopmental disabilities among children—such as autism, attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder, and dyslexia.

Prostate cancer: Clearing up confusion
Lorelei Mucci, associate professor of epidemiology at HSPH, studies the factors that influence prostate cancer risk and progression. She answers three questions about recent research findings in the field that have generated confusion for men.

Event Highlights

Decision-Making: Voices from the Field
Frank Nyonator, senior leadership fellow at HSPH and dean of the School of Public Health, University of Health and Allied Sciences, Ghana
Watch live webcast
February 25
12:30–1:30 PM

Celebration With the Stars
The annual HSPH Celebration with the Stars honors employees who have reached a service milestone of five or more years.
February 27
2:30-4:00 PM
Kresge Cafeteria

Centennial Moments
Successes, stories, and surprising facts as the School celebrates its 2013-2014 centennial.

Around the School

Decision-Making: Voices

More Centennial Moments
Watch a video of the discussion with Ron Pollack, executive director of Families USA, and other videos from this ongoing series.

The new University-wide ePerformance tool will offer employees a common method for setting goals, clarifying expectations, expressing development needs, and discussing their career aspirations with their manager. Watch this short interactive video for a quick overview and watch for more announcements.

Drop off recent medical books at the Courtyard Cafe, Countway Library, Kresge lobby, or TMEC Atrium, or buy requested books. To give for bookcases and library supplies, send checks made out to Partners In Health, memo line "Library", to Betsy Eggleston or Julie Whelan (Countway Library, Room 239 or 244).

The Harvard Heroes Recognition Program celebrates the extraordinary “above and beyond” contributions of Harvard staff. This year’s Harvard Heroes awards ceremony, hosted by President Drew Faust, will be held June 12 in Sanders Theatre. Nominations will be open March 3 to 19.

Imran Mahmud, MPH 2014, a health policy and management concentrator, discusses his background, experience at HSPH and his future plans after graduation.

You're receiving this email because you are an HSPH staff member or academic appointee.

Quick links:
Kiosk issue archive | HSPH home page
Latest HSPH news coverage | HSPH calendar
Download our app for iPhone and Android | Download Harvard Public Health magazine for e-reader

Harvard School of Public Health | 90 Smith Street | Boston, MA 02120
Contact us