Congratulations, Class of 2013!
HSPH awarded 558 degrees at its May 30 Commencement ceremony. Larry Brilliant, president and CEO of the Skoll Global Threats Fund, delivered the Commencement address. Read a list of this year's student, faculty, and staff award winners.

Mobile app recognized at Deans’ Challenge
HSPH students were on two of the finalist teams in Harvard’s inaugural Deans’ Health and Life Sciences Challenge. Team SQ, which proposed a mobile phone app aimed at college students, was named second runner-up.

Making time for mentoring
Khanichi Charles, spends long hours in the lab studying metabolic diseases as she works towards her PhD in biological sciences. But she makes time to mentor minority undergraduate students considering careers in science.

of India formalize collaboration on public health issues

HSPH and India's Ministry of Health and Family Welfare will work closely on a variety of issues.

Time to turn in Fitness Benefit Forms

Fitness Benefit Reimbursement forms and paperwork for fiscal year 2013 must be submitted by July 15. Visit Human Resources' Fitness Benefit webpage for a copy of the form and more information.

Karma Commuting Safety Campaign

Karma Commuting — "what goes around, comes around" — is a safety campaign by MASCO aimed at positively reinforcing the rules of the road for all commuters (pedestrians, cyclists, and drivers) and emphasizing the importance of sharing the road. Commuters who take a simple quiz to refresh their memory on road rules and sign a pledge to start changing their commuting karma will be eligible for prizes including round-trip tickets to anywhere in the US or a $100 American Express gift card. Take the quiz and sign the pledge.
