ACTIVE LIMITED SUBMISSION COMPETITIONS:

*NEW: Limited Submission - NIH: NCI Predoctoral to Postdoctoral Fellow Transition Award, 2018

Internal deadline: December 17, 2017 (NEW DEADLINE)

Sponsor deadline: February 21, 2018

This program honors 50 extraordinary scientists under the age of 40 for their contributions to advancing the frontiers of science, engineering and technology. These selected scientists become members of the WEF's Young Scientists Community. Harvard University, as one institution, can nominate six applicants for this award and the Office of the Vice Provost for Research will manage the application and selection process for the University. Harvard Chan School applicants should apply through HUFPP (Harvard University Funding Portal). The hyperlink above will bring you to the application portal, where you can find more information on award eligibility and internal submission requirements.

Internal deadline: December 11, 2017

Sponsor deadline: February 5, 2018

This program offers researchers the opportunity to transform new knowledge into societal benefits through translational research and technology development efforts which catalyze partnerships to accelerate innovations that address significant societal needs. Harvard University, as one institution, can nominate two applicants for this award and the Office of the Vice Provost for Research will manage the application and selection process for the University. Interested applicants should email (jennifer_chow@harvard.edu) by 5:00 pm on Monday, December 11, including:

1. Name and title of Lead PI and any co-PIs
2. A brief description of the proposed project
3. Responses to the following questions –
 - a. Which track do you intend to apply for (Technology Translation or Research Partnerships)?
 - b. If Technology Translation –
 - i. Please explain how this proposed project meets the lineage requirement as described by the NSF (e.g. identify any previous NSF grants supporting this work.)
 - ii. Please identify 1-3 letter writers who are prepared to address the commercialization potential of your proposed project.
 - c. If Research Partnerships –
 - i. Please describe your proposed Project Team, including:
 1. Primary industrial partner (required)
 2. Additional research partners (optional)
 3. Third-party investor (optional but recommended)

Internal Funding Opportunities

Internal funding – Harvard Global Institute: Research Initiative

Application deadline: December 15, 2017

The Harvard Global Institute (HGI) supports research initiatives that deepen Harvard's international engagement and promote University-wide scholarship to address pressing global challenges. HGI funds projects that cross both national and disciplinary boundaries while bringing together Harvard faculty and students with scholars from outside the United States to investigate problems of global significance. In AY 2018-19, HGI will fund research projects that examine topics with local import in China and/or India with the potential for global impact.

Internal Funding - Lemann Brazil Research Fund

Application deadline: January 22, 2017

The Fund will support research projects relating to Brazil. Proposals are sought for projects that address education management and administration; social science and its applications; public administration and policy; technological advances in education; and evidence-based research. Consideration will also be given to projects that propose collaboration between Harvard faculty and Brazilian academics in the life sciences, physical sciences and engineering, and basic and applied sciences.

Internal Funding – Blavatnik Biomedical Accelerator

Pre-Proposal Deadlines: Spring - November 27, 2017

The Blavatnik Biomedical Accelerator at Harvard University provides essential gap funding, development support, and business expertise to help faculty investigators achieve the full potential of their work. Proposals are welcomed from Harvard principal investigators with early-stage research in a range of life science areas, including therapeutics, diagnostics, drug delivery technologies, medical devices/instruments, and enabling technologies for drug discovery.

Internal Funding – Harvard's Solar Geoengineering Research Program

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.

Harvard's Solar Geoengineering Research Program (SGRP) invites faculty and researchers throughout Harvard to apply for grants. No prior experience in solar geoengineering required. The goal of the program is to: Take an active stance on research with a unique mandate to develop new path-breaking technologies that might improve solar geoengineering's effectiveness and reduce its risks; Employ Harvard's convening power to bring together scientists, environmental leaders, and government officials to discuss the technology and its governance; Advance science and technology, assess efficacy and risks, and lay out governance options and social implications.

Non-Federal Funding Opportunities

*NEW: Duke University School of Medicine, Department of Population Health Sciences: Dissemination and Implementation Science in Cardiovascular Outcomes

Application deadline: March 1, 2018

The Department of Population Health Sciences is seeking qualified implementation and dissemination scholars looking to train in T4 translational research in heart, lung, blood, and sleep (HLBS) disorders. Beyond examining effective interventions relevant to the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute (NHLBI), researchers can attend workshops/tutorials in scientific writing, in designing and writing research protocols, and in application writing for research support.

*NEW: Mendez National Institute of Transplantation Foundation: Research Grant Program

Application Deadline: July 15, 2018

The aim of this program is to improve clinical outcomes and positively impact the field of transplantation. The Foundation plans to achieve this by empowering patients with end-stage organ disease and transplant recipients through education to proactively manage their health and improve their long-term outcomes.

Limited Submission- The Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation: The Moore Inventor Fellows

Internal Deadline: January 16, 2018

Sponsor Deadline: March 5, 2018

This program seeks to identify outstanding inventors and innovators who harness science and technology to enhance the conduct of scientific research, strengthen environmental conservation, or improve the experience and outcomes of patient care. Harvard University, as one institution, can nominate 2 applicants for this award and the Office of the Vice Provost for Research will manage the application and selection process for the University. Harvard Chan School applicants should apply through HUFPP (Harvard University Funding Portal). The hyperlink above will bring you to the application portal, where you can find more information on award eligibility and internal submission requirements.

Limited Submission - Packard Foundation: Fellowships for Science and Engineering 2018

Internal deadline: January 8, 2018

This program provides early career faculty members (within the first three years of their appointment) engaged in research in the natural and physical sciences or engineering the opportunity to pursue their science and engineering research with few funding restrictions and limited paperwork requirements over a five year period. Harvard University, as one institution, can nominate 2 applicants for this award and the Office of the Vice Provost for Research will manage the application and selection process for the University. Harvard Chan School applicants should apply through HUFPP (Harvard University Funding Portal). The hyperlink above will bring you to the application portal, where you can find more information on award eligibility and internal submission requirements.

Limited Submission - Dana Foundation: David Mahoney Neuroimaging Program, 2018

Internal deadline: January 8, 2018

This program provides support that allows researchers to undertake pilot tests of novel hypotheses using conventional brain imaging techniques, cellular and molecular imaging technologies, or a combination of both. Harvard University, as one institution, can nominate 1 applicant for this award and the Office of the Vice Provost for Research will manage the application and selection process for the University. Harvard Chan School applicants should apply through HUFPP (Harvard University Funding Portal). The hyperlink above will bring you to the application portal, where you can find more information on award eligibility and internal submission requirements.

Limited Submission - Brain Research Foundation: 2018 Fay/Frank Seed Grant Program

Sponsor Deadline: March 28, 2018

This program provides start up monies for new research projects in the field of neuroscience that will likely lead to extramural funding from the National Institutes of Health or other outside funding sources. Harvard University, as one institution, can nominate one applicant for this award and the Office of the Vice Provost for Research will manage the application and selection process for the University. Harvard Chan School applicants should apply through HUFPP (Harvard University Funding Portal). The hyperlink above will bring you to the application portal, where you can find more information on award eligibility and internal submission requirements.

Humanitarian Innovation Fund: Innovation Grants

Application deadline: December 10, 2017

ELRHA's goal is to support innovators across the entire innovation lifecycle and address need for additional focus on the less-resourced innovation stages of problem recognition and diffusion. Grants are available in the following innovation stages: Problem Recognition, Advancing Seed-funded projects, Project Diffusion

The Lalor Foundation: Postdoctoral Fellowship Program \(STUDENTS\)

Application deadline: January 15, 2017

The program's mission is to support these researchers early in their work so that they can become independently funded in the field of mammalian reproductive biology as related to the regulation of fertility. One of the foundation's major objectives is to give assistance and encouragement to capable investigators embarking on teaching and research careers in universities and colleges.

Orthopaedic Research and Education Foundation: Research Program

Multiple deadlines

The Orthopaedic Research and Education Foundation (OREF) is committed to improving lives by supporting excellence in orthopaedic research. OREF is dedicated to being the leader in supporting research that improves function, eliminates pain and restores mobility, and is the premiere orthopaedic organization funding research across all specialties.

Scleroderma Research Foundation: Molecular Pathogenesis and New Interventions in Scleroderma

Application deadline: December 15, 2017

The Foundation seeks to expand its research program to advance understanding of the pathogenesis of scleroderma and to promote the design, development and pilot testing of hypothesis-driven innovative therapeutic approaches. The SRF encourages applications from scientists who have not previously worked on scleroderma, as well as those with substantial ongoing scleroderma-focused effort.

AHA: Innovative Project Award

Application deadline: January 11, 2018

To support highly innovative, high-impact research that could ultimately lead to critical discoveries or major advancements that will accelerate the field of cardiovascular or stroke research. Research deemed innovative may introduce a new paradigm, challenge current paradigms, look at existing problems from new perspectives, or exhibit other uniquely creative qualities.

AHA Transformation Project Award

Application Deadline: January 23, 2018

The Transformational Project Award (TPA) represents the second phase of a successful exploratory study that is already showing a high probability of revealing new avenues of investigation; proposals should include preliminary data. This program aims to provide pilot or seed funding that should lead to successful competition for additional funding beyond the pilot period. The principal investigator (PI) is responsible for clearly and explicitly articulating the project's innovation and the potential impact on cardiovascular and stroke research.

Allen Foundation: Grants Program

Sponsor deadline: December 31, 2017

The foundation makes grants to projects that benefit human nutrition in the areas of education, training, and research. Policies and priorities: To make grants to fund relevant nutritional research; To support programs for the education and training of mothers during pregnancy and after the birth of their children, so that good nutritional habits can be formed at an early age; To assist in the training of persons to work as educators and demonstrators of good nutritional practices; To encourage the dissemination of information regarding healthful nutritional practices and habits; In limited situations to make grants to help solve immediate emergency hunger and malnutrition problems.

Sponsor deadline: September 15, 2018

Established Investigator Grant: The Foundation seeks applications from promising individuals both inside and outside the field of scleroderma research who wish to propose pilot studies to obtain preliminary data dealing with a highly innovative and/or highly relevant theme related to the disease. This grant will support pilot research that is likely to lead to more substantial unlimited research project grants from federal or non-federal sources.

New Investigator Award: The Scleroderma Foundation seeks applications from promising new investigators who hold faculty or equivalent positions and who wish to pursue a career in research related to scleroderma. This grant supports promising research that is likely to lead to individual research project grants.

Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation for Childhood Cancer \(ALSF\): Epidemiology Grants

Sponsor deadline: December 15, 2017

These awards are expected to provide funds that will support investigators pursuing epidemiological research aimed at improving our understanding of childhood cancer. This grant mechanism is designed to support the research that focuses on the epidemiology, early detection or prevention of childhood cancer; or comparative effectiveness and outcomes research related to detection, prevention and treatment.

Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation for Childhood Cancer \(ALSF\): Young Investigator Grants

Sponsor deadline: December 15, 2017

The Young Investigator Grants are designed to support scientists during their fellowship training or early in their research careers. Demonstration of outstanding mentorship and demonstration of a career plan that shows commitment to pediatric cancer investigation are critical components of a successful application. Young Investigator Grants are 3 year awards designed to support scientists in the early stages of their research careers, such as postdoctoral or clinical fellows.

Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America: Broad Medical Research Program

Application deadline: Rolling

The BMRP is funding innovative research into the possible reasons for low and high incidence of IBD in different areas of the globe. Proposals should be exploratory in nature or designed as pilot. The research should shed light on factors that may influence low versus high global areas of prevalence of the disease. The research should ultimately be helpful in improved understanding of the etiology of IBD and the factors that enhance or prevent the genesis of the disease.

Elsa U. Pardee Foundation: Cancer Research Grants

Application deadline: December 31, 2017

This program funds research directed toward identifying new treatments or cures for cancer. The Foundation particularly encourages grant applications for a one-year period which will allow establishment of capabilities of new cancer researchers, or new cancer approaches by established cancer researchers. It is anticipated that this early stage funding by the Foundation may lead to subsequent and expanded support using government agency funding. Project relevance to cancer detection, treatment, or cure should be clearly identified.

Caplan Foundation for Early Childhood: Grants Program

Letter of Inquiry: January 31, 2018

Application deadline: TBD

The Foundation is intended to be an incubator of promising research and development projects that may ultimately enhance the development, health, safety, education or quality of life of children from infancy through seven years of age across the country. Each of its grants is made with the expectation that a successful project outcome will be of significant interest to other investigators or developers, within the grantee's field of endeavor, and will be amenable to beneficial application or adaptation elsewhere. In essence, the foundation's goal is to provide seed money for those imaginative endeavors, addressed to the needs of young children, which appear most likely to bear fruit on a national scale.

Howard Hughes Medical Institute: Hanna H. Gray Fellows Program

Deadline: January 10, 2018

The goal of the Hanna H. Gray Fellows Program is to recruit and retain individuals who are from gender, racial, ethnic, and other groups underrepresented in the life sciences, including those from disadvantaged backgrounds, early in their careers. We believe these promising scientists have the potential to become leaders in academic research and inspire future generations. Fellows will receive funding through their academic institution for postdoctoral training and may continue to receive funding during their early career years as independent faculty.

PCORI: Eugene Washington PCORI Engagement Awards

Application Deadline: Multiple deadlines

The Eugene Washington PCORI Engagement Awards offer two different funding opportunities: the Eugene Washington PCORI Engagement Awards, and Engagement Award Initiative Notice (EAIN) for Research Meeting and Conference Support. It is important that you click on the correct link to enter the application system because the application process is different.

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation: Pioneering Ideas and a Culture of Health

Letter of Inquiry: Rolling Deadline

The goal of this award is to look into the future and put health first as we design for changes in how we live, learn, work and play; to wade into uncharted territory in order to better understand what new trends, opportunities and breakthrough ideas can enable everyone in America to live the healthiest life possible. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation focuses on four broad areas: Health Leadership; Health Systems; Healthy Communities; and Healthy Kids, Healthy Weight.

Alzheimer's Association: International Research Grant Program: Alzheimer's Association Research Grant

Letter of Inquiry: March 1, 2017

The purpose of this program is to provide newly independent investigators with funding that will allow them to develop preliminary or pilot data, to test procedures and to develop hypotheses. The topics eligible for funding include: Research in diverse populations; Social and behavioral research; Biological focus: causes, Early detection, treatment, models, prevention and risk factors.

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation: Evidence for Action: Investigator-Initiated Research to Build a Culture of Health

Letter of Inquiry: Rolling Deadline

This program funds research that expands the evidence base needed to build a Culture of Health. RWJF is looking for research that examines the health impacts of programmatic or policy interventions that address factors outside the domain of health care services or public health practice.

Simons Foundation: SFARI Explorer Awards

Application Deadline: Rolling

This award program is designed to enhance our existing support of autism research by providing timely resources to enable focused experiments highly relevant to our mission. A deeper understanding of the mechanisms underlying autism spectrum disorders or potential therapeutic approaches will require investigation at multiple levels, including but not limited to studies focused on gene discovery, molecular mechanisms, circuits, anatomy, and cognition and behavior. We will consider proposals at all of these levels.

Genome-Wide Investigation of Late-Effects Using the Childhood Cancer Survivor Study \(CCSS\) Cohort

Application Deadline Rolling

The CCSS leadership is now broadening the scope of this initiative to study the role of genetic susceptibility in the development of non-malignant treatment-related outcomes (in addition to subsequent malignancies) in cancer survivors. Accordingly, CCSS is announcing a request for proposals to collaborate with CCSS and NCI investigators in the use of existing genome-wide association study (GWAS) data and corresponding outcomes-related data to address innovative research questions relating to potential genetic contributions to risk for treatment-related outcomes. Requests will be accepted on an ongoing basis. Requests will be reviewed three times per year, in February, June and October (cut-offs for receipt of applications will be February 1st, June 1st, and October 1st).

Alfred P. Sloan Foundation: Economic Institutions, Behavior and Performance Grants

Deadline: Continuous

The Foundation's program on Economic Institutions, Behavior, and Performance supports rigorous and objective research projects on U.S. economic structure, behavior, and performance whose findings inform and strengthen decision-making by regulators, policymakers, and the public.

American Association for Respiratory Care \(AARC\) Research Program

Deadline: Continuous

The American Association for Respiratory Care Research Program was established in 1996 to sponsor research to determine relationships between clinical interventions by respiratory therapists and the outcomes of care. The primary purpose of the AARC Research Program is to sponsor research initiatives which can document the clinical and economic impact of respiratory therapists in the delivery of health care. Clinical trials and effectiveness research to determine how clinical interventions by respiratory therapists affect overall health of patients, including physiologic indicators and quality of life, will be considered for funding.

Wellcome Trust: Innovator Awards

Deadline: Continuous

These awards support researchers who are transforming great ideas into healthcare innovations that could have a significant impact on human health. Our current focus areas are mental health, neurological disorders and neglected tropical diseases.
