Women's History Month

SMITHSONIAN CELEBRATES WOMEN'S FUTURE MONTH #IFTHENSHECAN

READ

Women in Microbiology
Edited by Rachel J. Whitaker and Hazel A. Barton
HSPH WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH EVENTS

Presented by the Office of Diversity & Inclusion
In Honor of Women's History Month

DECOLONIZING PUBLIC HEALTH
LESSONS FROM THE WOMANIST MOVEMENT

Featuring Anaëlle Séïde

March 28, 6-7PM
Learn More & Register
HSPH.ME/WHM
FROM RACISM TO COVID-19
BLACK WOMEN IN COMMUNITY & ONGOING PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS

Join the Harvard Community for a Film Screening & Panel Discussion

Screen the documentary film, A Reckoning in Boston, and join us for a conversation with Kafi Dixon and community panelists about the lived experience of racism-related stressors and determinants of health for Black women in Greater Boston as well as community-based health interventions through farming and collective advocacy.

REGISTRATION

On-Demand Film Screening
Available On-Demand March 20-22, 2022
Register Here

Panel Discussion
March 23, 2022
3:30-4:45PM EST
Register Here

Learn more about A Reckoning In Boston and our panelists HERE.