What is the Delta variant?

It is a new type of the COVID-19 virus that can spread more easily and cause more serious illness. Viruses can naturally change over time.

Being fully vaccinated is the best protection against the delta variant. However, it is still important to wear your mask in crowded indoor spaces.